King Humbert will open the new Parliament on the 25th inst

London, 8th—Gladstone will not attend the Lord Mayor's banquet tomorrow.

Rome, 8th—The comments on Giolitti's speech are now less favorable than at first. It is considered vague, especially as regards social reform.

Fez, 8th—The Sultan refuses to accede to the pretensions of France for a commercial treaty.

St. Petersburg, 8th—In political circles the rumour that Russia intends to seize Affghanistan is denied.

The semi-official papers say that if Russia wished to do so, she would have seized the opportunity of the recent Angheray revolt.

Madrid, 8th—The Queen Regent attributes her cold reception in Madrid to the unpopularity of Premier Canovas; and a Cabinet crisis is expected.

Rome, 8th—Sunday's elections resulted in the return of 350 Ministerialists and 120 Opposition members, 75 of the Right and the rest Radicals.

Thirty-eight ties. Government is expected to have a total of 375 votes against 133.

New York, 8th—The state of New York has decided for the Democratic candidate.

(Per Havas Agency.)

Paris, 8th — M. Charles Rouvier, French Envoy in Buenos Ayres, has been named Minister in Tunis.

A dynamite bomb was found in the Avenue de l'Opera, opposite the Carmaux Mining Company's office. When taken to the police office it exploded, killing two policemen and wounding another.

A great sensation has been caused by this affair. Criminals not arrested yet.

Brussels, 8th—The working classes held a Mass Meeting here yesterday in favour of Universal Suffrage. No disorder.

(To the "Prensa".)

New York, 7th.—The Herald predicts that Cleveland will be President, as he is supported by the leaders of both parties in all the States of the Union, owing to the McKinley tariff having produced such different effects from those anticipated, causing foreign workmen to flock to the country, and increasing the number of its millionaires. The MacKinley tariff forces the American manufacturer to import English operatives who will work for lower wages and thereby bring down those in America.

Berlin, 7th.—A high political authority has declared to an interviewer that the Military Bill has mainly sprung from the fact that Germany cannot trust her allies, Austria and Italy. He says the recent treaties are merely masks to conceal the disarmament of Austria and Italy. Germany has not up to the present received from these powers the support she requires.

The Emperor is deeply wounded by Bismarck's opposition to the Military Bill.

Vienna, 7th.—A Bill for Compulsory Civil Marriage has been laid before the Emperor by Count Szapary.

Rome, 7th.—Pelloux, Bonacci, Colombo and Barilzan are amongst those elected to the new Parliament.

MR. SEEBER'S ESSAY ON ECONOMY.

This portion of Mr. Seeber's book comprises 300 pages, divided into 12 chapters, which we condense as follows:—

Good government. Nothing is so necessary as caution on the part of Government. Capital is timid, and resents arbitrary proceedings. Commerce flourishes only in an atmosphere of liberty, and hence shutting the Bolsa was an act of folly. The great desideratum in Argentina is a Minister of Finance who knows nothing of metaphysics, but understands book-keeping.

Taxation. Taxes should fall on the rich, not on the working-man. Heavy import dues are therefore to be condemned, because they press most on the consumers, that is the bulk of the population. They are, moreover, especially injurious in B. Ayres, because they give rise to wholesale smuggling and bribery, which it is impossible to keep in check.

Direct taxes. Whatever objections people may have to direct taxes they are much the best. We see what tremendous burthens are imposed on the working-classes in the form of Customs-dues and other indirect taxes, which enhance the prices of all commodities 50 per cent. The present system of collecting taxes is fearfully expensive, and exposed to much leakage. All these drawbacks might be avoided if we had one general tax on real property. The total revenues of the nation are about $30,000,000 gold. Let us abolish the Custom-house, proclaim Free Trade, and suppress all internal taxes. A general tax of 1¼ per cent on real estate and live-stock, the value of which in 1891 (excluding railways) was 2,000 million dollars, would produce yearly $30,000,000 gold.

Incidence of Taxation—There is, in my opinion, a very erroneous idea abroad as regards the population of Argentina, commonly estimated at 4,000,000, but which (seeing that there are 480,0000 Nat. Guards) cannot be less than 5,500,0000 souls.

The sum total of taxation is as follows:—

	$ gold
National.....	32,400,000
Provincial.....	13,400,000
Total.....	45,800,000

If my estimate of population be correct, the incidence of taxation is only $8 gold per inhabitant, against $12 in England, $19 in France and $36 in Australia. This is irrespective of municipal taxes, which amount in the city of Buenos Ayres to $3,000,000 gold, or $6 per inhabitant, whereas in European capitals even $10 per head is considered very light. On all sides in this city we see signs of wealth and luxury, grand equipages, costly dress &c. And yet our hospitals and asylums are left to starve!

Protective tariff. During the last 15 years the country has been plunging deeper and deeper in the abyss of Protection. You want to increase our national exports, and every year you raise up fresh barriers against foreign merchandise, compelling other nations to retaliate: how can trade flourish under such circumstances? You are steadily erecting a Chinese wall around the republic, and thus reverting to barbarism. You seek to counteract the designs of Divine Providence, who has disposed that all nations should interchange their products.

Compare Sweden and Norway, where duties are light, with countries like Spain and Sicily, where Protection blights everything. The country which imports much is clearly more prosperous than one that imports little. And what is the result of our sugar-duties here? To plunder 5,500,000 persons and fill the pockets of 34 sugar-planters. If a Government is to protect one industry why not another, why not all? What right has any Government to say "this industry is useful, that other is not?"

Pastoral industry.—What Argentina needs is to improve and develop her pastoral resources. Look at Australia, where the land cannot carry more than one sheep to the acre, while our estancias have three or four to the acre. She has less population than we have, yet has pastoral exports reach £24,000,000 yearly, whilst ours are not quite £12,000,000. It we paid more attention to our flocks we should very soon double the weight of carcase and of wool.

Customs-reform. The Custom-house calls for wholesale changes; the employees and porters are often used for election purposes. Bribery is unhappily very common. The Customs report for 1891 shews that 3,600 bales and boxes are missing from the Lanus Deposits; the result of smuggling. The rascals who got out their goods duty-free have in some cases actually sued the Government for the value of the same merchandise.

Manufactures. Excessive duties on wines and other imports have caused many spurious manufactures to spring up. Tall chimneys are numerous in every part of the city and suburbs. The Minister of Finance testifies in his report that 7,000,000 gallons of horrible decoctions called Argentine wine are made in this country: they are made of raisins, spirits of wine, vitriol etc., and kill a large number of the population. These spurious liquors also help to fill our prisons and lunatic asylums. What a change since the good old time, when every poor man in Buenos Ayres could get a pint of Carlon wine for a few cents!

Uniform Dues—If Congress will not consent to abolish the Custom-house it would at least be advisable to impose one uniform duty of 20 per cent on all imports, and 10 per cent on all exports, without exception. The present system is abominable: the wealthy estanciero pays 5 per cent on imported wire for fencing, while his poor peon pays 60 per cent on his clothing and groceries. Is this just? And as regards property-tax the poor man who has half-a-league of camp is taxed at the full value, but the nabobs who own forty or fifty square leagues escape with a nominal tax, their land being valued at one-fourth of what it is worth.

Losses to the Treasury—The Treasury loses $10,000,000 gold yearly by the diminution in imports of wine, sugar and liquors; but the public gain nothing, except compounds of soda and pepper, and such like, which shorten our days.

Stamp-duty. This is very uneven, since a poor carpenter or bricklayer has to put a receipt-stamp of 5 cents for a sum of $20, while a millionaire pays only the same stamp on a receipt for $100,000. Again, stamps on bills for 30 days are charged the same as for 90 days. And while on this subject I would call for a reform of lawyers' costs, which are so exorbitant that a widow and children often find their whole inheritance consumed by the lawyers.

Trade-licences. The present mode of collection is arbitrary and unfair. Let the city of Buenos Ayres be commanded to supply $2,000,000 currency under this tax, and each branch of trade contribute a fixed quota.

Property-tax. The house-property of this city represents a value of 1,333 millions currency. Let the Municipality impose a tax of 1 per cent, which would produce $13,300,000 per annum, and abolish Octroi, market-dues, and all minor taxes. I would, however, leave the tax on theatres, and make it sufficient to support the city hospitals.

THE NEW LORD MAYOR.

Dr. Miguel Cané, our new Lord Mayor, made his inaugural speech on Monday to the Concejo Municipal. The speech, which we append, is short and to the point, a happy precedent which we feel much pleasure in recording. He said:—

Honoured by the choice of the President of the Republic to fill the chair vacated by Mr. Bollini, I feel it my duty to say a few words to you. It is not my intention to hide the difficulties with which we have to contend, or close my eyes to the grave responsibilities of my post. I am acquainted with the precarious condition of the Municipal exchequer and I know that the present is no moment to talk of vast plans of reform and improvement which would be illusory in practice, however much needed by the Municipality. I will limit my efforts to sound administration, to the organizaiion of the service, to the collection and economic and legal application of the city taxes, for which purpose I rely on an honest and competent personnel.

I attribute to you the same wishes for they are the wishes of the people who have elected you. I know the defects of the organic law which have caused some divergence between the two branches of municipal authority, but the laws, so long as they are in force, must be obeyed, and we must endeavour to settle any differences that may crop up, in an amicable manner. For my part, I shall endeavour to cultivate your goodwill, upon which I rely.

We cannot for the moment think of placing Buenos Ayres on the same footing of embellishment and sanitation as the principal European cities. We must limit our efforts to what is strictly indispensable, and we must pay what in honesty we are bound to pay.

In reply, Dr. Montes de Cca, president of the Concejo, made a speech in which he expressed his conviction that no differences would crop up between the Concejo and the Intendencia. The new Lord Mayor then withdrew, leaving the Concejo to its every-day business.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

GENERAL TOPICS.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Oct. 4.

The public entry into Dublin of Lord Houghton took place yesterday. We have not yet had time to receive authentic private accounts. The newspapers differ in their versions according to their political opinions. The Daily Nems reports that the reception of the Viceroy by the people of Dublin was most gratifying; whilst the Times and other opposition journals represent the event as a miserable failure and the proceedings as passing off as "flatly as possible." Some say that only the Unionists cheered, out of respect to the Queen's representative; whilst others report that the only cheers came from Trinity college: a fact which the Socialist organ, the Daily Chroniele, explains as a trait of Irish humour. The young men cheered the Queen's deputy out of respect to the whigs as Mr. Parnell's implacable enemies, though otherwise the political enemies of the Trinity College Tories. This is rather a round-about explanation. The fact is the young men, like many others in the crowd, cheered the soldiers and the pageantry. Owing to the fierce party divisions in Dublin, it was not expected that the reception of the Viceroy would be very enthusiastic. The Dublin corporation, by a majority of one, refused to present an address. The Chronicle reminds us of the fact that yesterday was the anniversary of the treaty of Limerick, and asks—"Who shall say, if that treaty had not been broken, that the whole history of Ireland for the last 200 years would not have been very different from what it has been? The treaty guaranteed to the conquered Irish the peaceful possession of their lands and the free exercise of their religion."

The Uganda question has to-day assumed a new phase by the publication of a letter from Sir John Kirk, accepting on behalf of the British East African Company the government proposals. The company, consisting largely of keen Scotchmen, are too wise to accept the malicious advice tendered by the Times, which was to accept nothing, but go and throw the whole blame of the scuffle upon the present government. The Kirks and the Mackinnons knew better. They know that the present government have had nothing to do with the matter; that it was the late government who acquiesced in the evacuation of Uganda by the company; and that Lord Rosebery only offers pecuniary support to the company for a few months, until they can make up their minds what is the best thing to be done. So the company takes the money and the chances of what may turn up by the delay. It is not a question of "ccuttle" as far as the Government is concerned. They do not yield any Imperial title to the territory under British influence. The point, and a very great point it is—is whether the nation shall be again dragged into expensive wars to suit the greed of a commercial company trading under missionary and philanthrophic pretences. Mr. Stanley, in one of his usual pioneering speeches, has just been protesting at Swansea against the evacuation of Uganda and preaching in favour of railways from the coast, to open up a trade in British calicoes with a population of eleven millions, &c. &c. But the explorer's whole protest is beside the question if intended as a rebuke to the government, who at present delay their decision in regard to Imperial action. Captain Lugard has not yet arrived in England. He is hourly expected. The company, with suspicious foresight and solicitude, have sent a nurse to meet him in Paris and protect him against the machinations of newspaper interviewers.

The great topic of the day amongst the average world is the "military ride" in Germany, from Vienna to Berlin and "vice-versa." There are upwards of two hundred competitors, all officers in the German and Austrian services. You will know the result long before this reaches you. We have as yet only heard of the arrival at Berlin of one of the apoarently successful competitors, the Austrian Lieutenant von Miklos on his horse "Marcsa." The name seems to be Hungarian, which I mention because a great part of the interest in the military race will reside in the breed of the winning horses. More than twenty of the German riders are mounted upon English thoroughbreds or half-breds. Until all the competitors arrive the race cannot be decided, as they started at different hours. Miklos left Vienna at 7.50 on Saturday morning and arrived at the Custom House in Berlin at 8.35 to-day. Another competitor, Lieutenant Csavossy, reached the winning-post at 11.10 this morning.

South Americans will take an interest in the grandson of the late Emperor of Brazil. Prince Pedro of Coburg, eldest son of the Duke of Saxe and his wife the late Princess Leopoldina, has gone mad. He is six and twenty. Poor little chap. We had many a romp with him and his little brother, twenty years ago, on board the Douro when the Duke and his family came to Europe. The little boys had all the refined beauty and all the fair-haired feebleness of the Bourbons.

I intended had I space to have said a great deal about the deceased scholar M. Ernest Renan. The criticisms on his career and opinions in the English press are some of them most interesting. A sceptical "Celt of the Celts" and "Breton of the Bretons" is a difficult phenomenon to touch, and particularly for Orthodox and Protestant Englishmen who try to extol his "piety" on account of his learning, and his belief in something at all events. The Chronicle sums up Renan's qualities very well. It leaves the impression we received long since from M. St. Hilaire and some catholic writers that with all his learning and cleverness, his charm of style and sweetness of disposition, M. Renan's mind was "vague and vain." He was always a half-emancipated heretic.

* * * *

We have this day received such grave accounts of Lord Tennyson's health, that I should not be surprised if you heard of his death to-morrow or next day. The poet laureate is 85. He is suffering at his place in Surrey from influenza and gout. The latest bulletin is very alarming. Who will be his successor? That is what is most talked of to-night in club smoking rooms and at literary tea-tables. They say Swinburne.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

Advices from Santiago del Estero are rather of a meagre description, and it looks very much as if the Interventor and the contending parties were all done up by the terrible heat, which at present makes life hardly worth living up-country. The enthusiasm of the Santiago ladies continues nevertheless unabated, and the Interventor is entertained at pleasant soirées every night. The wonder is that Dr. Costa finds time to do anything. Within the last few days the only measure of importance taken by him has been to send picquets to the different departments to maintain public order, for it turns out that in some departments, as in Atimisqui for instance, there are two kinds of authority; Rojista and Revolutionist. The consequence is a lamentable cat-and-dog existence which interferes with the march of local affairs and renders a popular outbreak by no means an improbable event. General Arias's force must be considerably reduced if picquets have been sent to all the departments; but there is no fear of disturbances breaking out in the chief town, at least for the present. The local legislature question is in statu-quo, and the judicial power will not resign for many sound reasons which it is needless to enumerate here. The Interventor has a very difficult question to settle, as the resignation of the executive removes only one of the many difficulties with which he has to contend in the discharge of his delicate mission.

Leaving the Santiago question for a moment aside, we note by our provincial exchanges that there is an alarming increase of murders, robberies and outrages all over the country but more especially in San Luis, where life is simply unbearable. The Puntano Government, however, is too much occupied with politics to devote any attention to the expediency of doing something to stem the torrent of crime. And even if politics did not absorb the official attention, it is probable that the Governor would concentrate all his energy upon some such project as raising the wind with the ostensible object of killing the locusts. What with murderers, thieves, locusts and politicians poor San Luis is in a very bad way. The vineyards and plantations have almost been completely destroyed by the voracious insects.

POOR PARAGUAY.

Mr. Editor,

Latterly I have seen more than one report in your paper that seems to bear hardly on this victimised country and the unfortunate shareholders of its one railway. At the first glance the blame appears to be put upon the Paraguayan Government's non fulfillment of paying a yearly guarantee of £55,000, out of a yearly government revenue from all sources of £25,000. I do not doubt for a moment that the Government did expect to pay a guarantee out of the profits of the shareholders of the railway, but it appears to me that both, the shareholders in England and the State as owners of the railway have been deceived by the Directorate. The railway leads to nowhere, ending in a desert at the river Piripo, some 20 leagues more or less from Encarnacion on the Alto Paraná, where it had to connect with the Argentine Railway in Corrientes. Had this been carried out it might have paid its way. But this is questionable, as its route is through such a sparsely populated country and it is an expensively constructed line, broad-gauge, I think what is known as Irish gauge; its locomotive engines with fuel and water on board weigh close on 70 tons each; heavy rails, extra strong bridges and heavy rolling stock are wanted in proportion, so it is easy to be seen how a large capital could be spent and with such small results. What would be the cost per mile of such a line? The line which existed, some thirty leagues, constructed during the time of the elder Lopez, had to be entirely relaid with new rails when this company took over the line. Who then is culpable for such a blunder? It cannot be the Paraguayans or their Government, for they knew not anything of railways or have they an engineer among them: then was the time for an Engineer or any man with sound common sense to have projected a metre gauge for the line with its light outfit, or better still I think such a Rural tramway as is described in to-day's STANDARD, the property of Mr. Lacroze; the actual population to-day of Paraguay is 220,000 inhabitants; how many are railway travellers or on the route of the railway? If it has been projected and carried out say by an engineer in Great-George, St. Westminister, surely that engineer has been innocent of all knowledge of Paraguay, its people, trade and commerce, or such a huge mistake would never have been made, two thirds of the amount expended would have been saved, the line would have been carried right through and might have paid a small dividend on a light outlay. The Paraguayans are more sinned against than sinning. Out of a £3,000,000 loan you state they got £180,000 they have stripped themselves of much of their best lands to pay bondholders more than their due, and much more of the lands are held by Absentee Landholders Speculators. Well may the poor nation be on the verge of Bankruptcy.

Yours truly,
Observer.

LOSS OF H. M. S. "HOWE".

H. M. S. "Howe", reported lost off Ferrol, is one of six battle-ships designed by Sir Nathaniel Barnaby, for the Board of Admiralty presided over by the late Rt. Hon. W. H. Smith M. P., commonly known as the "Admiral class" of ships. These six vessels have called forth more adverse criticism, and caused more discussion in Parliament, in technical papers, in the daily press and at meetings of learned societies than any lot of vessels designed for Her Majesty's navy during the past thirty years.

The Collingwood of 9150 tons displacement, the original, or "type" vessel of the class, was laid down July 12th 1880, the French ship Caiman of 7,300 tons displacement forming the basis of her design.

The Howe of 10,300 tons displacement was laid down June 7th 1882 at Pembroke, during the administration of Lord Northbrook as firs: Lord of the Admiralty. She was practically completed during 1887, but on account of the delay in furnishing her with guns, was not fully completed ready for service till 1889. She was engined by Humphreys, at a cost of £106,553 sterling, and her total cost including armament was £766,597 sterling.

The general dimensions of the Howe are:—Length 325 ft.; breadth of beam; 68-ft.; draught, extreme, 27-ft. 3-in, displacement, 10,300 tons. Two sets of compound engines indicating together 11,500 horse power under forced draught, drive twin screws, and give an extreme speed of 16.8 knots an hour.

Her armament consists of four 67 ton (13.5-in.) breech-loading rifles, placed in pairs in barbettes of 12-in. steel faced armor, located one at each end of the ship, 150 ft. apart; 6—6 in. breech-loading rifles; 19—3 and 6 pounder quick firing and 7 machine guns. Also one fixed torpedo launching tube and 4 torpedo launching carriages.

The side armor consists of a water line belt, of steel-faced armor 18-in. thick, but it extends only about 45 per cent of the length of the ship, or 150-ft.

The two points in the design of the Admirals that have called forth the most unsparing criticism are, first, that their buoyancy and stability are to a very great extent dependent on the integrity of the unarmored, but much sub-divided ends; and second, that the crews at all the guns, with the exception of the four 67 ton are without armoured protection even from the small quick firing guns that are expected to deliver a perfect hail-storm of shells among the men in exposed positions, and on the unprotected parts of any ship entering into a naval battle at the present day.

The heavy battery carried by the Admirals, combined with their high speed (for battle-ships) makes them formidable, and should they ever go into action, it is probable that they will deliver some telling blows before being placed "hors de combat.

W. V. B.

A DARING ADVENTURER.

Captain William Andrews, already famous for his daring adventures in small boats on the stormy Atlantic, has again set sail on a novel and interesting voyage.

He crossed the ocean twice before, first in the "Nautilus," when he was accompanied by his brother, who has since died, and again in the "Mermaid," both of these trips being made to Land's End, England.

The fact that Capt. Andrews can cross the ocean in a cockle shell merely proves that small boats are safe when a Capt. Andrews sails them. Amateurs should remember this when the wind begins to sing.

The captain says that "half the people who are drowned lose their lives because they do not realize that a boat cannot sink. An iron vessel might, or a ship loaded with a heavy cargo, but a row boat, sail boat or ordinary wooden vessel may capsize, but will, nevertheless, float.

Capt. Andrews is by trade a piano maker. He built the "Sapolio" at Atlantic City in the presence of hundreds of people, and exhibited it on the Long Pier for several weeks. It is a canvas folding boat lined with half inch cedar and decked over with the same.

The start was made at 4.30 Wednesday, July 20th, the destination being Palos, Spain. It is believed that, sailing in a fourteen foot boat without so much as a hot cup of coffee to vary his diet of biscuits and canned goods, he will, single handed, eclipse the record of Columbus. As he sailed from the pier he said, "In sixty days I will be in Spain," and up to the last reports he had made better time than anticipated. Every day during the voyage a bottle is thrown overboard.

We can now lay before our readers some very interesting extracts from the letters of Capt. Andrews.

August 20th.

"Arrived off Flores, the most northwestern of the Azores group. After vainly seeking a landing on the west side all day, was finally overhauled by a coast-guardsman and crew in a most desolate part of the island. I thought of foul play, for they were a rascally appearing set and insisted on boarding the "Sapolio." I was also fearful that their heavy craft would damaga my canvas covered boat, it being very tempestuous at the time, so after sailing around them and giving them all the information in my power by speaking, signs, etc. (for they understood but little English and seemed very desirous of some liquor, as they kept bending their elbows and putting their hands to their mouths as if drinking my health), I sailed away from them and disappeared out to sea.

"Friday, August 26th. Terceira.

"I arrived on the 36th day from Atlantic City, and the people are excited over the little "Sapolio" and the 'solitaire navigateur.' After loads of salutations, lunched with Señor Ferreira Borralho, prominent merchant, and drove to his country residence in the suburbs, and at evening, a full brass band with many torch lights escorted us from place to place, rockets were sent up and roses were showered over me and I was often sprinkled with orange flower water. To-morrow, Sunday, they insist that I shall see the bull fight and Monday I am to be escorted by a grand aquatic flotilla from here. I have had difficulty in obtaining leisure to prepare my correspondence and was forced to retire to avoid the throngs that thwarted my movements while on the street."—Exchange.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

The National Railway Board have issued a report in which they urge the Government not to accept Mr. Nicholas Bouwer's offer for the purchase of the Andine Railway station at Villa Mercedes. The Board state that the simple perusal of the application is sufficient to convince anyone of the inexpediency of accepting it. The operation would amount to an almost gratuitous cession of one of the principal stations of the Andine Railway. The Board lay down the principle that the State should not sell its railways either partially or entirely, and of course to almost cede or give away a station is altogether out of the question. In advising the Government to throw out the "singular petition," the Board call attention to the fact that Congress voted more than $700,000 for the Andine Railway.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

A nothing-particular kind of day was the 8th of this month. The honourable Senators of the nation no-quorumed; the gold premium did n't go down; and there was a rather take-it-easy feeling in all circles, except those connected with tramways, where there was a whisper of a tremendous "novedad" that will settle the Inspector and "boleto" nuisance for ever. We know all about this "novedad" and it is certainly wonderful. We saw the model at work yesterday. It is a nice little machine, the invention of Captain Bustins, of the U. S. mercantile marine, who took out a patent for it yesterday. To accurately describe this pretty "maquinita," which will be carried by the guard instead of a cash-bag, is impossible; it is on view at Mr. Irish's auction mart, 383 Calle Piedad. We may, however, mention that the inventor claims that it will save the tramway companies $500,000 yearly, after allowing for increased pay to guards and Inspectors; it will prevent fraud by registering the passengers; it will abolish tickets, thus saving $70,000 yearly in this item alone, and it will keep its own books so that the manager has only to open it to ascertain the amount received since it began to work. Another great advantage it has that the Inspector is kept away from the public and has only to do with the guard. We recommend all tramway managers and officials to call at Mr. Irish's and inspect this marvellous piece of mechanism.

Half the British community will be comfortably seated to-night at the San Martin Theatre admiring each other and feeling a double pleasure through contributing towards the funds of the "British and American Benevolent Society" and hearing "Crispino é la Comare," "Cavalleria Rusticana" and the "Gran Via."

Cast not away the last opportunity you may ever have of seeing "Caste" performed so well as it will be to-night at the Odeon Theatre. Go early. The demand for tickets was as brisk as a bee yesterday.

We received the programme for the Tableaux Vivants and concert on Monday next too late last night to publish it to-day; but hold it for to morrow. Miss Lumb's songs are altered. The cazuela will be open to ladies and gentlemen. More to-morrow.

The whole population are in danger of losing their soles. The bootmakers and cobblers of the city have resolved on strike, which will probably begin on St. Martin's Day. No doubt St. Crispin's sons had Day and Martin's Blacking in their eye when they selected the date for kicking up their heels.

The Ladies' Committee of the Boys' Orphanage beg us to gratefully acknowledge a balance of $35 from Miss Violet Leslie's bazaar; making in all $620. They also wish to thank Mr. John Ryan for his donation of £1 sterling.

Mr. Lundstrom, the eminent Scandinavian photographer, will move downstairs at 521 Calle Cangallo on the 1st of next month, and is preparing a pleasant surprise for his daily increasing patrons.

Mrs. Garat and her boy. The Ensenada Railway killed the poor little chap. She asked $40,000 for him; but the unfeeling law courts have refused to give her a cent.

Now, fair ladies and stalwart gentlemen who think Tennis worth living for, read the advertizement of the B. A. L. T. C. in another column and make your preparations to see and enjoy the popular game.

The revival of immigration has set the National Labour Office on the move again, and only vagabonds, dead-beats and good-for-nothings in general need be without work in the coming summer. Tho N. L. O. has work for over 1,500 souls and bodies: cooks, carpenters and cobblers; hatters, hodmen and harvest-hands, farmers and female servants, joiners, boys, and all kinds of people.

Messrs. Horrocks and Fulford's excursion to the Paraná de las Palmas, which was to have taken place on Sunday last but was postponed owing to the bad weather, will take place on the 11th inst. with a more extensive and attractive programme which, for those that are desirous of going to the Regatta, and who have not the facility to obtain steamers, will he an opportunity not to be missed. The special train will leave the Central Station for Campana on the 11th at 9.30 a. m. stopping at Parque, Belgrano and San Martin and arriving at Campana at 9.30, where a good breakfast will be laid out for the excursionists, after which they will all embark on board the fine steamers Adriatico and Mediterraneo, both of which will leave Campana together at 11 a. m. with a good band of music organized by Mr. Ricardo Furlotti. They will steam down the Paraná de las Palmas, enter the River Capitan through the Abra Nueva and into the Lujan, reaching the site of the Regatta at 2 p. m., and will remain there until it is over. The return ticket will be available for any train by the Central Argentine Railway up to the last one on the day mentioned. The price for this magnificent round trip, including special train, steamer, breakfast and return by rail is only $15, or say much less than it will cost people to go to the Tigre with a view to see the Regatta.

Corrientes will be probably the next provincial candidate for Dr. Costa's services in the Interventor line, if he can manage to straighten out matters in Santiago before the expected political unpleasantness in the former province begins.

Dates from the unpierced Isthmus of Panama up to September 29th. The papers are full of the cholera news from Europe and plans and devices to prevent it getting at the valuable Isthmus. All the pony-chaise republics near the Line seem to be abnormally free from any violent outbursts of patriotism just at present, and show no inclination to "go for" each other.

Here's a side-splitting story favoured us by a sympathising North American subscriber:—"Apropos of the leanness of ex Senator Ingalls, a Kansas man tells the following story: There is a doctor in Atchison who is a great friend of Mr. Ingalls. He had been frequently annoyed by a newsboy, who would come into his office very unceremoniously and pester him by trying to sell papers. One day when Mr. Ingalls was in the office the boy was heard coming up the stairs, and the doctor decided to put up a job on him. He rushed out an articulated skeleton, placed it in a chair by the desk and then the two men withdrew to the back room. In rushed the boy, and without noticing what was at the desk, came directly up to the skeleton. When he looked up and saw it grinning at him he was nearly scared into convulsions, and bolting for the door, yelled bloody murder. The joke tickled the doctor, but Mr. Ingalls's conscience pricked him, and going to the window, he looked out at the boy, who was standing below, crying. "Come up-stairs, my boy," he said. "I'll buy one of your papers." But the boy began to yell harder than ever, and between his sobs he managed to blubber out: Oh, you cannot fool me, even if you have put your clothes on!'"

The postponed Flower Corso at Palermo will come off to-morrow and Friday. No change in the enticing programme.

Mr. Cane, the new Lord Mayor, made his debut before the Town Council on Monday, and, contrary to custom, made a speech from the civic throne. He said the Corporation was so monstrously hard up that all big plans etc. were out of the question (no doubt his lordship alluded to the folly of trying to finish the Boulevard) and strict economy must be the order of the day. He said he did n't see the fun of the standing fight between his predecessors and the Wise Men before him, and would try to change all that. His lordship then withdrew, and the Corporators got through some business and went home to an eight o'clock dinner.

The Rev. Dr. Smith M. A. will preach on Sunday 26th, at noon, at the Cabaña, district of Cañuelas.

Whew! Another jewel steal, from Mr. Emilio Martinez, of Calle Corrientes, who is minus $27,000 in cash and trinkets, stolen by two of his servants who are not to be found.

Two sad affairs at Palermo were reported yesterday. A young fellow of 24 named Medrano, highly connected and a clerk in the Post Office, blew his brains out; and a boy jockey, while exercising a race horse, suddenly fell dead from the saddle.

Great speculation is still going on in Montevideo in the Buenos Ayres Centenary stamps, and the unused stamps (in sheets of 50) are offered by one at 90 and 100 cents each, by another at 80 and 60, and by another at 40 and 50. They will be probably come down to 20 cents yet. The unused stamps are less valuable to collectors than the used ones with the postmarks on the original evelopes. The latter command amongst collectors 30 and 50 cents each and are much more sought after than the unused ones, for which, as yet, there is no quotation. There is no speculation whatever in these stamps here, so far as we know.

With the object of avoiding errors in the rain data received from the Post Offices in the Republic, the General Director, giving a practical form to the indications received from the public, has ordered the instalment of pluviometrical stations in the principal places of the Republic that require them, and which will be attended to by the persons in charge of the Offices. With this object he has solicited from the Director of the Cordoba Meteorological Observatory twenty pluviometers, which will, no doubt, be given.

The English Book Exchange at 333 Florida has received that sensational novel by Thomas Hardy: "Tess of the D'Urbervilles," also Farres's grand historical novel: "Darkness and Dawn," and many others.

The new Pigeon Shooting Club at Vicente Lopez on the Northern Railway, just outside the reach of the Municipal and Federal laws, will begin business to-morrow, and numerous families have been invited to witness the slaughter. Will they go? Doubtful.

We had the pleasure of a visit from the King of Ventriloquists, O'Kill, yesterday, and he gave us a free, gratis and for nothing performance. He had a desperate wordy squabble at the door with an imaginary enraged subscriber who wanted to get in to shoot us because he saw a letter turned upside down in his advertizement. O'Kill finally persuaded him to abandon his murderous intent and go away which he did, grumbling all the way, as he walked through the STANDARD Tunnel to the street.

Don't forget the cheap excursion fares to Mar del Plata to-morrow night. Saint Martin will be honoured there with a special fete: and the present is a glorious season near the wild waves, far nicer that in the broiling summer, if fashionable people only knew it.

Mr. E. T. Puleston, Her Majesty's Vice-Consul at La Plata, has named Mr. Arthur Puleston pro-Consul for the legalization of signatures and other notarial business of the Vice-Consulate.

Our rifle-loving Swiss fellow citizens will go in for another shooting Tournament on their ground on the 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th of this month. The programme is immense, and the Swiss Minister, Colonel Rode, will preside.

The latest railway want about to be supplied is a machine inside the cars that will turn up the names of the stations as they are reached, thus avoiding the shouting of the guards. This will be a decided improvement.

RACING AT PALERMO.

The following are the results of yesterday's races:—

Premio Farandol.—Handicap for horses that have not won in the year 1892. Prize: $1,500 to the first and 200 to the second. Distance 1500 metres.

THE POET'S SMILE
He worked off a smile of supreme content
As he dropped in his easy chair,
A laugh from his classical lips he sent

Oh no! You need not believe it;
'T was the news that a friend had sent him
A case of Old vatted Glenlivet.

BUENOS AIRES ARTHUR GEO. PRUDEN GERENTE

The Customs deposits in the Madero port are all full and the cargo of the German steamer Hanover has been sent to the Catalinas, which is rather good news for the shareholders of that company; and it was said in shipping circles today that the cargoes of 3 or 4 other steamers just in will also have to go to the Catalinas. The import business seems to be very brisk; the people in Europe are again sending us out too many goods, too much merchandise, and there will again be very heavy losses, as the fall in the premium on gold and the appreciation of the value of the paper-money will necessarily curtail much of the extravagance going on and reduce consumption. People whose salaries are in gold, have been living in the seventh heaven for the last two years, but now the turn has come and every drop in gold reduces their income. The import merchants all say that the people in Europe are shipping goods too fast to the River Plate; we have the proof of it in the fact that all the splendid Customs deposits of the Madero Port are filled from floor to roof.

Owing to the recent storm the buoys of the Boca channel have been all shifted; most of them have been carried away to the North. To-day the port authorities were busy putting them back in their places.

The splendid Italian steamer Regina Margarita with 1,200 passengers on board entered this morning, and the Nord America with an equal number has arrived in Montevideo and will be up to-morrow. Both these steamers enter the dock in La Plata and land their passengers there, who are brought up to town by special passenger train on the Ensenada railway; rather a good business for this railway; and the turn of emigration from Europe to the Plate will materially improve the value of the Ensenada railway stock.

Mr. ex-Lord Mayor Bollini has been made director of the National Mortgage Bank.

Mr. Rutishauser, representative of the Credit Lyonnais, has arrived down from Mendoza and was warmly welcomed on Change by his numerous friends; he says the vines look splendid and we shall probably have a great wine crop.

Mr. R. Bossi has on exhibition a large lump of coal sent down from the mines at San Rafael in Mendoza. It is proposed to send this coal sample to Chicago.

Another broker robbed. Yesterday it was our painful duty to report the heavy the heavy loss of $60,000 gold by one of our most fashionable brokers; to-day it is our equally unpleasant duty to announce the loss of $27,000 by another fashionable broker, in money and jewelry; stolen, be believes, from the table of his dressing room. It is to be regretted that our brokers invest so largely in jewelry.

Something went wrong with the hydraulic machinery in the port yesterday and the cranes and the bridges could not work. All last night they were hard at work making the repairs; we believe the storm and the flood must have had something to do with it. The water rose so high in the darsena that it nearly ran over; a thing never before known since the construction of the port works.

Consequent on the fall in gold there has been a great drop in the wheat and wool markets. Splendid wools were sold to-day in the Plaza Constitucion and in the Central market at 6 and 6.30 the 10 kilos; these are fine mestiza Rambouillet wools which last year sold as high as $9 to 10.

The latest news from Montevideo is to the effect that the Banco Popular has applied for embargo against the Banco Hipotecario of Uruguay; this is a new departure and has caused much astonishment in Montevideo, as all the properties mortgaged to the Bank will now be under embargo. We have had nothing like this all during the crisis in this market, and it is difficult to define the position of debtors to the Mortgage Bank in consequence of the embargo.

Mr Enrique Kenyon has purchased from Messrs Varela and Delvalle 300 squares of camp in Gualeguaychú for $35000; the camp is known as Los Gallipones, on the river Gualeguaychú. Mr. Kenyon proposes to establish a large butter factory, for which he has already received the necessary materials.

The following auctions of real estate were effected on Sunday:

By Luis Godoy and Co.—house Rio Bamba 1158 for 12000 to J. Vidal, 3 lots calle Pichincha close to Comercio for 10 per vara, 1 lot Bollini close to Cangallo for 7.30 do, 1 small house calle 2a Cuyo close to Gran Chaco for 4100, another calle Salguero close to Viamonte for 5000, another Soria close to Cochabamba for 3200.

Messrs Funes and Lagos sold 16 Durham bulls from the cabaña La Laura belonging to General Bosch, at from $60 to 300 each, and two Durham cows at 310 and 230 respectivly, buyers Vela, Balza, Castain, Cazal and Schoo.

Mr Pascual Costa shipped yesterday per S S Allianza 70 head of cattle for Santos.

Messrs Sanchez Viamonte and Co. publish the following prices current; Dry hides from Entre Rios $1.85 gold per 10 ks; do from Concordia 1.80; do from Corrientes 1.70 to 1.75; do from Misiones 1.60 to 3.70; Carpincho skins at 60 cents.

Messrs. Madero have informed the Government that unless the Treasury pay the certificates presented some time ago, all work at the entrance and in the channel of the Riachuelo must be suspended. The Accountant General has raised an objection against Messrs. Madero's certificates, on the ground that the funds of the Port Loan are exhausted and that the works, represented by the Certificates, should have been carried out by tender and not ordered directly by Government, which is contrary to law.

Mr. J. Wells has sent a proposal to the Government to dredge the Riachuelo from Barracas Bridge to the Boca.

It was announced on Change that Don Manuel Aguirre took his post to-day as President of the Banco de la Nacion, and that the new Board of Directors held their first meeting. The Bolsa has three representatives on the board, namely Messrs. Uriburu, Correa Morales, and Becu, all men of good market experience and whose opinions in the administration of the bank will be invaluable. Mr. Vincent Casares who retires from the presidency, can point with pride to the flourishing condition to which he and his co-directors raised it. The bank was started in the depths of the crisis and without a penny of capital, yet owing to Mr. Casares's admirable management it has become in one year one of the principal banking institutions of this market. On the 9th Nov. last year Mr. Casares installed his new Banco de la Nacion in the old Colon theatre building, and ever since the day of its starting it has proved a success.

With pleasure we announce that the new English Meat Company has taken over the market at Caballito, and that henceforward the families resident in that locality will be supplied every morning with the best beef and mutton.

Paper Money.

Projectors every now and then start up with plans for curing all the economical evils of society by means of an unlimited issue of inconvertible paper. There is, in truth, a great charm in the idea. To be able to defray the expenses of government without taxation, and, in fine, to make the fortune of the whole community, is a brilliant prospect, when once a man is capable of believing that printing a few characters on bits of paper will do it. The philosopher's stone could not be expected to do more.

The substitution of Paper for metallic currency is a national gain: any further increase of Paper beyond this is but a form of robbery.—John Stuart Mill on Inconvertible Paper Currency.

Paper Money properly means paper made legal tender, and not legally convertible into gold, or anything else, at the pleasure of the holders, or at any given period. No part whatever of the value of such paper money is derived from confidence. It circulates because it is made legal tender, and because the use of a circulating medium is indispensable; and its value, supposing the demand to be constant, is in all cases inversely as the quantity in circulation.—

PHOSPHATIC

BAKING POWDER

BARON LIEBIG, the world-renowned chemist said, "I have though a great series of experiments, satisfied myself of the purity and excellence of your preparation. The bread has no acid, is easily digested, and of the best taste. Aside from the conveniences this invaluable idea of yours has provided, I consider this invention as one of the most useful gifts which science has made to mankind." It is certain that the nutritive value of the flour will be increased 10 per cent by your invention, and the result is precisely the same as if the fertility of our wheatfields had been increased by that amount.

What a wonderful result is this!"

THORNCLIFFE

TRADE MARK

ACARICIDE.

We the undersigned, hereby bear testimony to having witnessed the dipping trials made with the above dip on two flocks of sheep badly infected with scab, at Mr. Patricio Ham's Estancia "Santa Margarita" (Capitan Sarmiento F. C. C. A.), on the dates of May 21st and June 13th 1892.

The dip was mixed in the proportions of one part of dip to forty parts of cold water.—The Sheep and lambs alike were assed through the bath, and we noted that not one single case of poisoning occurred, nor were the sheep uneasy afterwards, proving that the dip contains no poisonous or burning properties. — At the end of June we testify to having examined these sheep and found them absolutely cured of scab with only once dipping. We noticed also that they had improved remarkably in condition and that the wool shewed no signs of discolourment. We have every confidence in recommending the "Thorncliffe Sheep Dip" as one of the safest and most effective dips that has ever come under our notice.

Rifa de "Las Golondrinas"

Tendra lugar infaliblemente el Domingo 25 de Diciembre proximo la rifa del Chalet "Las Golondrinas," en vez del dia 6 de Noviembre como estaba anunciado. Al acordarse esta prorogs por la Municipalidad de Lomas de Zamora, se ha tenido en cuenta el retardo en la venta de los numeros de esta rifa, por la hostilidad sistemada que se le hizo en la Capital Federal y que perjudico momentaneamente el credito de una rifa que es a todas luces seria y honrada.

Felizmente su exito esta ya asegurado, porque en los ultimos dias se han vendido considerable numero de billetes y la postergecion hasta el 25 de Diciembre—cuando recien empezará la gira veraniega a los pueblos de campo—no trae perjuicio ninguno para el publico, antes al contrario, el agraciado con la suerte se evitara los gastos de conservacion, que revisten importancia, por el esquisito comfort en que tiene los edificios y jardines su actual propietario. 5 12
